ORDER

22 Civ. 9106 (PGG)

PAUL G. GARDEPHE, U.S.D.J.:

For the reasons stated at today's hearing, the Petition is granted to the extent that the Government is directed to provide Petitioner with a constitutionally compliant bond hearing within twenty-one days of today, at which the Government will bear the burden of demonstrating, by clear and convincing evidence, that Petitioner is a danger to the community or a flight risk, and that these concerns cannot be alleviated by a bond or other alternatives to detention. The immigration judge is directed to give the parties seven days' notice of the date for the bond hearing. By April 6, 2023, the Government will submit a letter confirming that the bond hearing was conducted and stating the outcome of that proceeding.
